

Passenger / General User — 15 Questions

1. What is the most important information you want to know before getting on a bus, but usually cannot find?

Ans: Conscious about our sit, also have safety issue.

2. Think about the last time you had to wait a long time for a bus. What did you do?

Ans: Phone Scrolling, wait a lot of time, use another via like CNG, Bike or rikshaw.

3. If you knew exactly when your bus would arrive, how would that change the way you plan your journey?

Ans: Passenger try to get out from home and wait for bus specific bus stoppage.

4. Have you ever gotten on the wrong bus and realized it later? What happened, and what did you do afterward?

Ans: Someone who had to choose the wrong bus after 10-15 minutes later passenger realise they are select the wrong bus and try to off the bus and choose the right way. On the other hand, someone say that they choose wrong bus for the same name bus but rout different.

5. How do you decide whether a bus is safe enough for you to get on?

Ans: Try to Service, maintenance (fare processing, fitness). Sitting service with a standard number passenger will use standing sit.

6. What bothers you the most about using local buses—waiting time, fare, overcrowding, drivers, helpers, routes, or something else? Why?

Ans: Upper all. Without location driver break the bus for this bus driver are not maintain the timing and the passengers are not meet their maximum productivity.

7. If you could fix only one problem with Dhaka's bus system today, what would you fix?

Ans: Discipline route (Constant the route), timing, bus stoppage fixed exact location.

8. How would knowing the exact fare before boarding a bus change your experience?

Ans: Must be need, some of the helpers were unethically for the fare.

9. When do you choose Uber, ridesharing, or a private car instead of a bus? Why?

Ans: Timing issue.

10. Have you ever been late to an important place because of an unpredictable bus journey? What happened?

Ans: Every day. Passengers are getting out from home for their target place with a lot of time, but they will be late. It's also the issue of helper's rules.

11. Would you like to know whether a bus has valid fitness certification and whether its driver has a valid professional licence before boarding? Why or why not?

Ans: Must be. Specially fitness certification. Also included safety issue for bus passengers and to near bus via.

12. If two buses were going to the same destination, but only one had verified safety and service information, which one would you choose and why?

Ans: Of course, must be choose with fitness and licence certification bus.

13. What does a "good bus" mean to you?

Ans: Bus which has fitness is good, driver is skilful, driver who drive the bus by a licence achieved driver. Further more the helper also good.

14. If you could rate a bus service after your journey, which three things would you want to rate?

Ans:

- Driver
- Bus fitness
- Behaviours of helpers.
- Passenger Management system.

15. What could a public transport app offer that would make you want to use it every day?

Ans: Yes. Because of the passengers are informed about bus time, live location, payment method, safe the life, and see all the rout.

Women/Children/Elderly/Accessibility (7) Questions

1. What situations could make a woman feel uncomfortable or unsafe while travelling by bus?

Ans: Over passenger/Overcrowded where girls/women are not fill safe. The girls prefer to separate the man, and women sit into the bus and rule strictly follow that the girls sit will be not use without girls either the passenger will be a children/atypia. Children and atypia will only use whenever sit will be free only.

2. As a parent or guardian, what three pieces of information would make you feel more comfortable if your child travelled by bus alone?

Ans:

- Bus tracking.
- Safety Issue.
- Confirmation notification to parent their children reach the target stoppage.

3. If your child did not have a smartphone, how would you want to make sure they were taking the correct bus and route?

Ans: IOT version must have to add bus, helper or bus driver will be sent or the children will be sent confirm notification.

4. What do you think are the biggest difficulties elderly passengers face when getting on or off a bus?

Ans:

5. For a wheelchair user or someone with limited mobility, what do you think is the biggest barrier to using the current bus system?

Ans: Not possible this phase.

6. If you could see accessibility features before choosing a bus—such as wheelchair access, priority seating, or audio announcements—would that affect your choice? Why?

7. What does “public transport for everyone” mean to you?

Ans: For public transport means all types of people will be use it for their need.

Driver/Helper (4) Questions

1. As a bus driver or helper, what is the most difficult part of your daily work—traffic, passengers, time pressure, owner pressure, routes, or something else?

2. If technology could make one part of your job easier, what would you want it to help you with?
3. If a transport system monitored your work, what type of monitoring would feel unfair to you, and what type could improve your safety or working conditions?
4. What benefits would make you personally willing to use a smart transport system every day?

Bus Owner/Operator (2) Questions

1. As a bus owner or operator, what is your biggest operational challenge—revenue, driver management, maintenance, routes, passengers, competition, or something else?
Ans: Driver and money management issue, those are main issue for the owner. And, someone choose the maintenance (maintenance cost).
2. If one system could show your fleet's location, maintenance status, revenue, and route performance in one place, which information would be most useful for making business decisions?
Ans: Maintenance, Money management and show the solidarity/transparent.

Government/Transport Authority (2) Questions

1. What do you think is the biggest problem in Dhaka's public transport system that technology alone cannot solve?
Ans: Traffic Jam (which will be not all the place), stoppage, sit management (if helper and driver cooperate then possible).
2. If the route, fitness/compliance status, operational performance, and passenger-service data of participating buses were available through one trusted platform, what decisions could the government make more effectively?
Ans: Government should remove all without fitness bus, reform the traffic rules, specific root for the specific bus.

5 Most Important Questions for Your Interview

1. If you have limited interview time, prioritize these:
2. If you could fix only one problem with Dhaka's bus system today, what would you fix?
3. What information do you most want before getting on a bus?
4. How do you decide whether a bus is safe enough for you to get on?
5. If your child did not have a smartphone, what would make you feel confident about their bus journey?
6. What would a smart public transport system need to offer for you to say, "I actually need this every day"?